

DTI William Penn Data Center Energy Consumption

Each month of 2008 so far DTI has consumed less energy than the same month last year. Our most recent energy bill shows a 6.8% reduction in energy usage compared to the same month last year. Relatively simple steps helped us accomplish these reductions especially in light of the fact that MORE physical equipment is in our data center than last year.